Rep. Luján to Visit Communities Across District, Discuss Recovery Plan

Washington, DC - Rep. Ben Ray Luján will hold an Economic Recovery District Tour beginning on Saturday, February 14, 2009. Rep. Luján will visit several communities in New Mexico to speak with constituents and local leaders to talk about the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act. He will visit schools and small businesses, attend roundtables with elected leaders, and host other events that will allow him to reach out to the people of New Mexico and answer their questions about the American Recovery and Reinvestment Plan. The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act could create or save 7,500 jobs in the 3rd Congressional District.

All events are open to members of the press. All events are tentative and subject to change.

Please RSVP to Mark Nicastre, (860) 685-1542.
